Dear Instructor,

Welcome to the United States International Taekwon-Do Federation. Enclosed you will find a brief history of the USITF, a guide line on protocols, school and individual membership application. Feel free to make as many copies of the applications for you and your students as you require.

As a quick summary of the USITF... The United States International Taekwon-Do Federation is an official governing body for the International Taekwon-Do Federation (ITF). All standards are those set by the ITF and the USITF. Students testing under a certified ITF instructor / testing board are recognized Nationally and Internationally. Some of the events you will find with the USITF / ITF are:

- International, National, Regional, State, and Local tournaments throughout the year
- International, National, and Regional Summer Camps
- Seminars
 - Business Seminars
 - International instructor's courses
 - Referee seminars
 - Instructor's course
 - Regional, State and Local seminars
